

Hospice in Bremervörde has received 100,000 euros

THE FRICKE GROUP PRESENTED THE DONATION TO HOSPICE “ZWISCHEN ELBE UND WESER E.V.” SUPPORT ASSOCIATION

At this year's gala celebrating the 100th anniversary of the FRICKE Group, around 1,000 invited guests all donated to the hospice “Zwischen Elbe und Weser e.v.”. Raising a total of 100,000 euros for the Bremervörde-based facility. A couple of days ago on the 15th of December 2023, the symbolic donation check was handed over to the support association at our company headquarters in Heeslingen.

Heeslingen, December 15, 2023 - Yesterday the chairman of the association, Ludwig Most, and Pastor Carsten Stock visited the FRICKE Group to mark the official handover of the donation. They gave the company management an up-to-date insight into the work of the hospice, and then accepted the donation check of 100,000 euros. The majority of which was donated by guests at the FRICKE anniversary gala, which took place in March. Then FRICKE Group topped up the amount to the final total donation to show further support to the cause.

Pressemitteilung

The support association Hospice "Zwischen Elbe und Weser e.V." has set itself the task of providing good care for seriously ill people in their final weeks and hours. Nurses, palliative care physicians, chaplains and numerous volunteers show their full commitment to their guests and their relatives every day.

"I am always deeply impressed by what the hospice team does every day. Institutions like this make a difference in our society," Hans-Peter Fricke says. "I would like to take this opportunity to thank all our partners, customers, friends and family guests who have supported the association with their donations. Together, we stand up for other people and support regional and social institutions."
